Infallible settlers say this is the latest season they have known. All seed life seems somnolent, yet a delicate suggestion of colour is at the tips of the willows. An insidious, slow-moving process is at work in the trees – one that spells from death -car to drive more slowly unto drouth-world. The wine of spring aflush on the face THE COPS- FIND- 2 J3£3 I H • ^ \ Hn is a Goad of Death Gourd of chanqts Takt Life is totally totally lonely of Nature. Dearth is the only reality we’ve got left in our nicey-nicey-clean-ice-cream-tv scraps, so we’d better worship the long wall of skulls next to the ball park. The delay only whets our monstrosity. A unique beauty about this pre-vernal landscape before it is screened by red-brown colour, air and surface, semi-thick – a boldness suggestive of how Janey and the rest of the people witnessed the Italian primitifs in ‘wild’ societies where the word ‘why’ can’t exist. With a minimum of means we get a maximum of expression.
Chistikat, I forgot my clé
I called back to him, Come across you
I can’t, me, I’m got no boat Awe, Willie, I’m just slocked by the light, can’t you die in the daark? I used to dance till I was soak sweatin See wuz alwuz waring a red cot like a capote
One of these kind what has a mid-place for to put in a ramrod
So she says, Kawiinachini, boy, chuckling same time
That’s not me, my louse – that’s you, your louse
Not like the people what lives close along the river
Some of them what fishes all the time
And stab a few with my spear that I made spin
To learn them to shoo
What do you call that cream, now?
His name is Mrs. Bear
He’s a widow-woman too
He goes by himself and she goes by himself
I guess I talk like a Bungee, yes
Oh don’t write that down now, you
That’s my knockabout coat, you
He’s a Jew doctor, you
She wasn’t havin to pay a cent, you!
I can’t wait to get home, you
Times is changed, my girl
I never got married in the church, my girl
You’re a bad girl to tease me, yes
But when we were a kid, no
Shooting out the lips on occasion, yes
If I dust them, yes
When things settle down, but I’m dying for a cigarette, but A bugger to work and clean things, but You’ll take wheat you get, look!
We were just – not far to go, like Yeh, that was part of the way they used to talk, yes There’d be first, second and third, you know, sets, like They must be got a different way of punchin it down, must be He’ll home me now for sure to kipits around
I’m got a creamy colour home
I’m got money home
I love listenin er
I wonder whatever happened her
If anything happened me
Listen me, now!
Girl keeya, you take my neechimos I’ll get me another whaefer!
You sould never shtop when you are goin on a messidze
The canoe went apeechequanee and they went chimmuck
I was settin along the stove havin a warm
He standed in the door and wave us
And he taked his woman to home with him
Over the ocean away there where I’m sure that wives won’t like it when they gets away there
Dressed up like that in a shroud
You’re not got your fine boyish figure
I’m not got a hand like my father
What if they’re not got no dolly, what then?
And that’s the way he never got drownded
Bye me, I kaykatch killed it two ducks with wan sot
What kind of a sins can a little girl like Mary got?
I’m not wanting a shabby-looking purse, my dear
Oh was she ever hopeless, my dear
Was she ever wicked to me
He was ever the first to strip to the waist
Oh, it’s ever pretty, my dear
Ever makes you sick, yes
I just never had enough examples
That’s the second time that yoke cracked
Oh girl, yes, What we’d ever used to do, eh, Doris?
Ahhh, you’d fade when I tell you
It’s about time she was a-comin
Hark at the birds a-singin
The wind’s a-whistlin
Big black fellers a-crawlin
Left the lamp a-burnin
Unless it starts a-rainin or something
Men a-diggin
Myself a-makin
Two a-cuttin
Joan been phonin Brian
Somebody been takin it off
An old lady at Red River Manor’s been dyin
The old man’s been passin away
Oh, somebody been givin my name
I been put it in my purse
The jugs are been gettin mixed
And he took a big swig of the lamp oil
Red Ridin Hood’s bin wackin up
But now Jamesie’s bin tellin me she died
So Red Ridin Hood’s mother bin puttin a bannock and two shmocked gold ayes in a rogan
When I go, I’ll go chimmuck
You don’t know the rights about it You’re been at that crust, I see
The wolf gave the shtring a haird pull, dahrs bin flyin oppen
They’re only got ten minutes left to play
He sure could made that old fiddle talk, ye-naw-see, like
I remember when you used to say apichekwani, Mom It’s got a grip of my tongue, but We’re not got no time, but That’s a new fence they’re got Ponassin to roast on a stick, but I’m got on Sophie’s bodie and it’s too tight That’s the only thing I like Winnipeg about Two more days workin at that ditch I put in And din’t I see Lucy and Dora!
And din’t I go the cupboard now, and din’t I pull out this bottle, girl
And din't the trap go off and catch him by the nose
And din't the corpse thaw out and fall offen the bench BANG
Din't they get such a start their hair was standing straight up, mind
And they never hit nothing to kill them, only wound a duck Hello, nishtaw! I wonder, who's this He's so knowing, a very knowing cat
He took me everywhere, everywhere he took me
That's what he said when he said that to me
She never wasted nothing, not a thing did she waste
Now's the time it comes is in the springtime
And that's about the size of all what happened around here, my girl
I guess that's all I can remember just now to say That's all I can tell you about that
This much I, too, will say for now
The baskets start coming up – and, he says
I clean forgot, he says
I din't know, he says
Well, he says
A forget-me-not flower, he says
From a buttercup, he says
Suddenly he feels something on his knee, he says
Something is touching him – and when he looks there, here
It was the same snake, he says
With another frog in his mouth, he says
EVA'S IN THE VIGWAI OP
THE AVEGER OP BLOOD.
It is true Canada is not exactly a Utopia, Ltd., for there is hard work and a rough, raw, erudite wail against the postmodern loss of meaning and emotion to be done before comfort or affluence are built. I used to have a lot of idyl fantasies inwrought with Indign traits about your too bruised and scared surface looking into the seeds of time. How now, my masters! Smacks not this one-acted poem of the great national prosaic life of Arcady?

The cursings and obscenities that taint the air and brutalize life elsewhere are in this quaint old and I’ll be up shitcreek. One listens to the ominous growl of the English workers not giving up my life for a one-night stroking the tongue with razor blood. If flesh and blade cannot
