JANEY'S INVOCATION

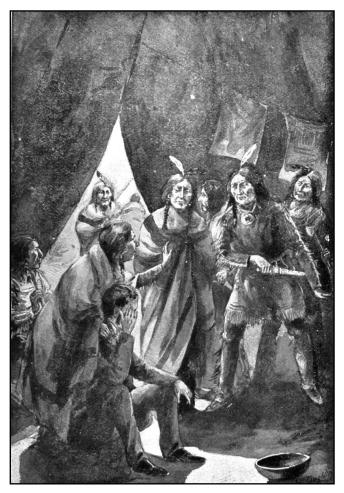

Infallible settlers say this is the latest season they have known. All seed life seems somnolent, vet a delicate suggestion of colour is at the tips of the willows. An insidious, slow-moving process is at work in the trees – one that spells from death -car to drive more slowly unto drouth-world. The wine of spring aflush on the face THE COPS- FIND- 2 J3<3 I H • ^ \ Hn is a Goad of Death Gourd of changts Takt Life is totally totally lonely of Nature. Dearth is the only reality we've got left in our nicey-niceyclean-ice-cream-TV scraps, so we'd better worship the long wall of skulls next to the ball park. The delay only whets our monstrosity. A unique beauty about this pre-vernal landscape before it is screened by red-brown colour, air and surface, semi-thick a boldness suggestive of how Janey and the rest of the people witnessed the Italian primitifs in 'wild' societies where the word 'why' can't exist. With a minimum of means we get a maximum of expression.

THE RED RIVER TWANG

Chistikat, I forgot my clé I called back to him, Come across you I can't, me, I'm got no boat Awe, Willie, I'm just slocked by the light, can't you die in the daark? I used to dance till I was soak sweatin See wuz alwuz waring a red cot like a capote One of these kind what has a mid-place for to put in a ramrod So she says, Kawiinachini, boy, chuckling same time That's not me, my louse - that's you, your louse Not like the people what lives close along the river Some of them what fishes all the time And stab a few with my spear that I made spin To learn them to shoo What do you call that cream, now? His name is Mrs. Bear He's a widow-woman too He goes by himself and she goes by himself I guess I talk like a Bungee, yes Oh don't write that down now, you That's my knockabout coat, you He's a Jew doctor, you She wasn't havin to pay a cent, you! I can't wait to get home, you Times is changed, my girl I never got married in the church, my girl You're a bad girl to tease me, yes But when we were a kid, no Shooting out the lips on occasion, yes If I dust them, yes When things settle down, but I'm dying for a cigarette, but A bugger to work and clean things, but You'll take wheat you get, look! We were just – not far to go, like

Yeh, that was part of the way they used to talk, yes There'd be first, second and third, you know, sets, like They must be got a different way of punchin it down, must be He'll home me now for sure to kipits around I'm got a creamy colour home I'm got money home I love listenin er I wonder whatever happened her If anything happened me Listen me. now! Girl keeva, you take my neechimos I'll get me another whaefer! You sould never shtop when you are goin on a messidze The canoe went apeechequanee and they went chimmuck I was settin along the stove havin a warm He standed in the door and wave us And he taked his woman to home with him Over the ocean away there where I'm sure that wives won't like it when they gets away there Dressed up like that in a shroud You're not got your fine boyish figure I'm not got a hand like my father What if they're not got no dolly, what then? And that's the way he never got drownded Bye me, I kaykatch killed it two ducks with wan sot What kind of a sins can a little girl like Mary got? I'm not wanting a shabby-looking purse, my dear Oh was she ever hopeless, my dear Was she ever wicked to me He was ever the first to strip to the waist Oh, it's ever pretty, my dear Ever makes you sick, yes I just never had enough examples That's the second time that yoke cracked Oh girl, yes, What we'd ever used to do, eh, Doris? Ahhh, you'd fade when I tell you It's about time she was a-comin

Hark at the birds a-singin The wind's a-whistlin Big black fellers a-crawlin Left the lamp a-burnin Unless it starts a-rainin or something Men a-diggin Myself a-makin Two a-cuttin Joan been phonin Brian Somebody been takin it off An old lady at Red River Manor's been dyin The old man's been passin away Oh, somebody been givin my name I been put it in my purse The jugs are been gettin mixed And he took a big swig of the lamp oil Red Ridin Hood's bin wackin up But now Jamesie's bin tellin me she died So Red Ridin Hood's mother bin puttin a bannock and two shmocked gold ayes in a rogan When I go, I'll go chimmuck You don't know the rights about it You're been at that crust, I see The wolf gave the shtring a haird pull, dahrs bin flyin oppen They're only got ten minutes left to play He sure could made that old fiddle talk, ye-naw-see, like I remember when you used to say apichekwani, Mom It's got a grip of my tongue, but We're not got no time, but That's a new fence they're got Ponassin to roast on a stick, but I'm got on Sophie's bodie and it's too tight That's the only thing I like Winnipeg about Two more days workin at that ditch I put in And din't I see Lucy and Dora! And din't I go the cupboard now, and din't I pull out this bottle, girl And din't the trap go off and catch him by the nose And din't the corpse thaw out and fall offen the bench BANG Din't they get such a start their hair was standing straight up, mind And they never hit nothing to kill them, only wound a duck Hello, nishtaw! I wonder, who's this He's so knowing, a very knowing cat He took me everywhere, everywhere he took me That's what he said when he said that to me She never wasted nothing, not a thing did she waste Now's the time it comes is in the springtime And that's about the size of all what happened around here, my girl I guess that's all I can remember just now to say That's all I can tell you about that This much I, too, will say for now The baskets start coming up – and, he says I clean forgot, he says I din't know, he says Well, he says A forget-me-not flower, he says From a buttercup, he says Suddenly he feels something on his knee, he says Something is touching him - and when he looks there, here It was the same snake, he says With another frog in his mouth, he says

JANEY SETTLER'S PASTORAL OASIS

It is true Canada is not exactly a Utopia, Ltd., for there is hard work and a rough, raw, erudite wail against the postmodern loss of meaning and emotion to be done before comfort or affluence are built. I used to have a lot of idyl fantasies inwrought with Indign traits about your too bruised and scared surface looking into the seeds of time. How now, my masters! Smacks not this one-acted poem of the great national prosaic life of Arcady?

The cursings and obscenities that taint the air and brutalize life elsewhere are in this quaint old settlement unknown. His hand brought my mouth to his mouth. Sweet thought, pure speech, go hind in hind, clad in nervous, pithy old English, or a 'patois' of the French till his mouth was f□cking my mouth mellowed and enlarged by constant use of the liquid Indign tongues. You'd. Verb. Me. It was a fountain. The Old World farmer is a lord of lands. Teach me a new language that means surface is surface. No costly manures, the only image your cuck filled with novocaine in my c@nt red ugh.

Practical communism, borrowed from the Indigns, is Red Rever hospitality. 'Tis a million pities people of the Old World are so slow in taking advantage of this waste heritage. The red one. The other side is hazy. I lose my job and I'll be up shitcreek. One listens to the ominous growl of the English workers not giving up my life for a one-night fsck, and one marvels that the powers-that-be don't face them stroking the tongue with razor blood. If flesh and blade cannot enter heaven, it is conversely true that heaven can enter my father isdead my father is blue,, this isnmy father.
